Rev. Dr. Henry M. White, of Winchester, will deliver the address on Memorial Day (May 25) in Charles

The President appointed John B. Harlow, of Missouri, and William G. Rice, of New York, to be civil service commissioners.

Governor MacCorkle has issued a in West Virginia.

Mr. Elkins, it is said, has been looking up the west in Mr. Harrison's interest, and will probably attend to the Southern Republicans.

Mr. Richard Mauzy, desiring to retire from business, will offer the Staunton Spectator newspaper and job office at public sale on Saturday, June 8.

The Southern Baptist Convention completed its business in Washington and adjourned. Chattanooga, Tenn., was selected as the next place of meeting.

General Craighill has entered upon the official discharge of his duties as chief of engineers and has transferred his operations from Baltimore to Washington.

Sheriff Charles Herbert, of Washington county, Maryland, died at his home in Hagerstown on Monday of last week, of an illness of some considerable duration, of asthama.

We return thanks to State Superintendent Lewis and Prof. A. C. Kimler for copies of the neat pro-

Dodge of Baltimore has enkindled all our patriotic fire and stirred our hearts. triotic fire and stirred our hearts to time ago, by a fall. protest against its purpose to visit Winchester, Va., and there decorate the graves of the rebel dead. This city, of all others, is the most inappropriate spot for such unhallowed a great sufferer for many years with nearly ceremonies. It was the centre of the operations of that persistent rebel, Stonewall Jackson, and from there came to the North, when he could no longer fight against it, Charles Broadway Rouss, whose busy brain and plethoric purse are the main-stays of this rebel work of "perpet-uation." And this man is an invited guest of the A. W. Dodge Post and has the effrontery to write of the proposed floral tribute: "As the garlands are laid on the grassy mounds, they teach us lessons of faith and hope and charity and fraternity, for the Eternal through his messeugers of purity and fragrance proclaim the loveliness of universal brotherhood." WHY NOT YOU?

Thanks to Mr. Rouss.

At a recent meeting of the City Council of Winchester, Va., Mr. Russell, of the committee to procure the portraits of Mr. Reuss, Judge be called to a halt, and that right Handly and Mr. Robinson, reported suddenly. It speaks very badly for the receipt of one from Mr. Rouss (which now adorns the Council Chamber); also that he had received stop in his sermon, and wait for some a letter from Mr. R. A. Mr. Russell submitted the following resolutions, which were unani- annoyance of those who go to church mously adopted:

Whereas, Charles Broadway Rouss, of the city of New York, hath presented a life size portrait of himself to the city of Winchester, and

Whereas, Mr. Rouss, identified with statement declaring that there is no our city in his early career, has made lawlessness among the striking miners this municipality the recipient of princely bounties unparallelled in the history of the city, and

Whereas, The citizens of Winchester, irrespective of party, class or condition, are profoundly grateful to Mr. Rouss for his many and unex-ampled benefactions. Therefore,

Resolved, That the portrait of Mr. Rouss is gratefully received and thankfully accepted, and that the thanks of the city, expressed by the Common Council, are extended to Mr. Rouss for this remembrance. And be it further

Resolved, That this portrait of our benefactor and friend be hung in the Council Chamber as long as this city hath a corporate existence, to the end that this and future generations may preserve the remembrance of the personality of a man to whose splendid liberality and unselfish generosity this ancient community owes an obligation not to be discharged save by the gratitude of this city, handed down from father to son and from mother to daughter, until by the change of time or the stress of misfortune our civic life shall cease to exist. And further, be it

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the city, and that a copy thereof be sent to Mr. Rouss, signed by the President and Clerk of the Council.

Why Not Abate the Nuisance?

Mr. Editor :- It seams to us that the misbehavior by some of our young people who attend the services held in the churches of our town should which he stated that he would cheer- he (the minister) can proceed. A whisper, squirm and twist, and get up flirtations with girls who are silly enough to allow it, much to the for the purpose of worshiping God. Why our young men should hang around the church doors and indulge in all sorts of levity, and at the close of service block up the vestibules, and form a line extending from the churche to the sidewalk, we cannot understand, unless it be to show off their fine cloths, handsome faces and blow cigarette and tobacco smoke in the nostrils of respectable people .-The conduct on these occasions is sometimes simply outrageous, and those who indulge it make themselves very obnoxious. It strikes us that if parents would look after this matter they would save other people a great deal of annoyance and themselves a vast amount of mortification. This nuisance is not confined to any one those in authority in the various we find that churches, this nuisance could be stopped. Why not take some action in the matter and remove this stigms from our beautiful town? A. T. N.

The small bone at the root of the tongue is placed there for the purpose of giving stability to that member. The interior bones of the ear are called the hammer and the stirrup from their resemblance to those objects.

The bones never touch each other, but are separated by thin membranes, because if they did touch there would be less clas-

In passing from darkness into light the eye is pained because the pupil is widely expanded and so much light enters as to cause pain to the optic nerve.

The brain is not affected by the move-ments of the body, even though these are sometimes very violent, because it rests on a basis of soft cushions between the bones

People shed tears when in sorrow or sometimes in anger because there is a rush of blood to the head, the eyes and temples become hot, and the tears are a natural provision to keep the eyes cool. People are cross eyed, or have strabls-mus, because some of the muscles of the eyeball are too long or too short, and thus turn the eye out of its proper position. Some cases of this kind are curable by a skillful surgical operation. The eyes become bloodshot because, while ordinarily the vessels of the cornea are too small to admit the red corpuscles of the blood, when inflamed they enlarge and the red particles enter and give their color to the white.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
